$\varphi : G \mapsto K$, where G and K are groups, is a homomorphism if φ satisfies the following property.

$$\varphi(ab) = \varphi(a)\varphi(b)$$

Where ab is multiplication performed in G, and $\varphi(a)\varphi(b)$ is multiplication performed in K.